Hot Off the Press!

We are delighted to announce the date of the Lively Latin Canine Show in the UK.

The most respected and laudable Ms Magistra will judge the talented canines! Ms Magistra is quoted as saying she's "relieved to be on Terra Ferma" after the long flight from America.

First up is Bella the Beautiful Border Collie.

Wow! Ms Magistra proclaimed she had never seen such feminine and spectacular dancing from a Border Collie before.

Next we have Magnus the the Massive Mastiff.

Well it's evident that is certainly a very special tail Magnus! And a magnificent bouquet of flowers for me!

Antiqua the Antique Afghan ..... is she a Prima Donna?

“Her evocative song is fabulous,” Ms Magistra proclaimed.

And two lovely Pugs, Rex and Fido! Well you're certainly not pugnacious!

After a brief interlude, Ms Magistra was ready to announce the winners.....

Magnus, you receive the Rose Rosette for your terrific tail.
Antiqua, you are awarded the penultimate prize for your spectacular song.

Congratulations Bella, you are awarded the ultimate prize for your unique performance!

“But Wait” exclaimed Ms Magistra!
The Pugs!

Ms Magistra consulted her notes and declared The Pugs were winners of the special cerulean blue bonus rosette

- MOST PUNGENT PUGS!

They all unanimously agreed it had been a stellar day.
